Methodology

The structure of a typical course will require students to read materials supplied by the university, study related materials, do some personal research on the topic (focusing on areas of personal interest).

For each topic covered, the student prepares the answer to a test. The test consists of applying the skills in a given situation. For example, in a change management course, a test question can be: your company has merged with another one, you are the manager of a sales team and you face lack of motivation due to the change. What can you do?

In some courses, students are required to prepare projects where they can apply in a more complete way their newly acquired skills. The teachers of each Course shall guide the Students to the very best process that is required, either by Distance Learning Online or Onsite Teaching.

How much contact do I have with my Professors?

The professor is a private tutor, always available via the site, and in some cases via msn or skype.

When can I enroll?

Any time, the courses begin at the start of every new month.

Do I need any test to verify my English level?

A TOEFL Pass Grade, or equivalent is needed. Or, if working in French, the French Language equivalent Pass Grade.

What is the minimum number of courses that can be completed per semester?

You can complete a minimum of two courses per semester.
